A marriage ceremony tinctured with a sad, romantic touch, rather than being hallowed with happiness, took place at Albuquerque the other evening. Miss Nora Hunt went there for her health about six months ago. Later, William Steele, her admirer at her old home in Shullsburg, Wis., followed, desirous of being near his sweetheart and to console her during her struggle for health. The young woman grew worse and it was decided that she should return to her home to die among friends. That he might accompany her with propriety and remain at her bedside to the last, the young fellow got Father Mandalari to marry thom last evening, and accompanied by Mrs. Anna Hunt, the mother of the dying young girl, they started with the latter for Shulisburg, Wis.

Superb Photographs of

The Maine Cartain Sigsbee The Officers The Crew

Most Magnificent Collection of Photographs of This Character Ever Offered to the Country.

The public mind has been so mightily stirred by recent events in Cuba, especially by destruction of the battleship Maine, and her gallant crew, that the demand for information respecting "Uncle Sam's Navy" has become exceedingly great, and this strongly reflects the patriotic sentiment of the country. The Daily Herald, with characteristic appreciation and encome exceedingly great, and this strongly reflects the patriotic sentiment of the country. The Daily Herald, with characteristic appreciation and enterprise has undertaken to supply this loyal desire by issuing a superb portfolio series of photographic views—page size (flx13½ inches), of our battleships, cruisers, torpedo boats, monitors, coast defence boats, gunboats, and auxiliary vessels; also pictures of our navy commanders, drill exercises, big guns, and other interesting views, each illustration being accompanied by text matter giving all needful information of our navel resources. Each portfolio will contain 16 pages of pictures and text matter, printed on heavy plate paper, and bound in colored paper cover, and may be obtained upon the following conditions:
